

The Greco-Latin Trust

for Young Pianists

The Greco-Latin Trust for Young Pianists aims to help aspiring young musicians pursue their musical studies in London. Every year, the Trust will select one piano student of Greek or Latin American background and will offer the young musician a maximum stipend of 10,000 GBP to help cover the student's living expenses in London. The purpose of the Trust is to give these aspiring musicians the opportunity to immerse themselves in their art for a year during this important period of their development.

ELIGIBILITY AND GUIDELINES

- Application to the Trust is open to pianists from Greece or Latin America who are 25 years of age or younger at the time of application.
- For Greek applicants, the candidates must be born in Greece.
- For Latin American applicants, citizens of the following countries are eligible to apply: Argentina, Bolivia, Brazil, Chile, Colombia, Costa Rica, Cuba, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, El Salvador, Guatemala, Honduras, Mexico, Nicaragua, Panama, Paraguay, Peru, Uruguay, Venezuela. Latin-American applicants of Greek ancestry will be given particular consideration, but candidates from all countries listed are encouraged to apply, as the decision will be made solely on merit.
- The applicant must be enrolled as a full-time student at one of the following schools: Royal Academy of Music, Royal College of Music, Guildhall School of Music and Drama, and Trinity Laban Conservatory of Music and Dance. Musicians not currently enrolled but possessing a letter of acceptance for the 2019-20 term are also eligible to apply.
- The candidate must provide proof that his/her tuition expenses for the Academic year are covered in their entirety by the school's own financial aid office, or by alternative sources.
- Both graduate and undergraduate students are eligible.
- Only students majoring in Piano Performance are eligible.
- The stipend is only for one year and non-renewable. Previous recipients may not apply again; however, previous applicants who were not selected are welcome to re-apply.

APPLICATION PROCESS
